Media Forum in the frameworks of Moscow International Film Festival once again presents the newest achievements in the field of media art and contemporary screen culture and prepares a special educational programme. During the first days of the exhibition Documentary: Reality Is Not Enough the audience will have an opportunity to attend to seminars and workshops by exhibition participants who will discuss their latest work, meet young artists, and express their own opinion on modern tendencies in contemporary arts. This year the audience will be able to acknowledge interrelations of reality and fiction and to immerse in the experience of historical fakes and art manipulations.

Attention! To attend educational events by Media Forum pre-registration is required
